

WHY MACHINES WON'T REPLACE US

Acton University 2018

Jay W. Richards, PhD
The Busch School of Business
The Catholic University of America

THE HUMAN ADVANTAGE

Pursuing Happiness in an Age of Smart Machines

The Five Features of the Information Economy

1. Rapid Disruption
2. Exponential Growth in IT Sectors
3. Digitization
4. Hyper-Connectivity
5. Ever Increasing Information

The Five Corresponding Virtues of Happy and Successful People

1. Courage
2. Antifragility
3. Altruism
4. Collaboration
5. Creative Freedom

The Myths to Avoid

1. Lump of Labor Myth
2. Fatalist Myth
3. Inequality Myth
4. Fragility Myth
5. Greed Myth
6. Zero-Sum Game Myth
7. Follow-Your-Passion Myth
8. Rugged Individualist Myth
9. Post-Capitalist Myth
10. Commodification Myth
11. Libertine Myth
12. Materialist Myth

The Human Advantage: Why Machines Won't Replace Us

Jay W. Richards, PhD

Busch School of Business and Economics

The Catholic University of America

Acton University, June 2018

Jay W. Richards, The Human Advantage